Who we are

The answer to your foreign exchange needs

Simplifying international payments

When VFX Financial started back in 2001, our mission was to provide customers with the specialist knowledge and experience needed to take advantage of today's volatile global markets. Today, we offer a fast, secure and trustworthy service using some of the most robust technology in the industry. Along with an exceptional level of service, we can offer you a better exchange rate than most of the big banks. VFX Financial has a proven track record, our clients include many well-known investment banks, hedge funds and global institutions.

History of VFX Financial

VFX Financial has grown to become a leading non-bank provider of global payments and foreign exchange services.

2001

Voltrex Ltd is established as a full-service FSA regulated inter-dealer broker, located in the City of London.

2003

A dedicated FX Desk serving institutional clients in the deliverable currency market is created as an alternative to the out-moded and expensive offerings provided by the high-street banks.

2005

Voltrex becomes the first non-bank FX company to offer a browser-based FX trading and payments platform streaming over fifty currency pairs with real-time tradeable prices.

2011

Voltrex FX and payments business becomes a separate corporate entity dedicated to providing foreign currency trading and payments as well as client driven solutions. The new company is named VFX Financial PLC headed by Nick England, Clive Shelton and Stephen Brawn and one of the early pioneers of the sector now known as “Fintech”.
