

WHO WE ARE

INDEPENDENT FINANCIAL BROKER

We provide world class financial solutions to our extensive institutional client base including leading investment banks, commercial banks, asset managers, hedge funds and corporations.

Our services include wholesale brokerage and execution of cash and derivative products across a range of asset classes including equities, debt, listed derivatives and OTC products.

VCM has offices in London, Hong Kong and Tokyo from which it services an increasingly international client base. Our strength lies in the experience and quality of our team, supported by excellent operations and infrastructure.

SPECIALIST SERVICE

SPECIALISED PRODUCTS

VCM offers an extensive range of specialised products. This comprises Fixed Income, Equity Derivatives, Commodity Derivatives, Cash Equities and OTF execution.

We consistently provide optimal price discovery, using our expert product knowledge and far-reaching network to source the best available liquidity for our clients. VCM is a firm that prides itself on its speed of execution, professionalism, transparency and independence.

WHAT WE DO

WHOLESALE DERIVATIVES EXECUTION

Ensuring that trades negotiated off-exchange are reported on-exchange in an efficient and compliant manner is an increasingly complex task.

With over 80 years of combined market experience, membership of all of the major European derivatives exchanges, experience in both trading and broking, alongside an encyclopedic knowledge of products, exchange rules and market conventions, the desk has the unique skill set to fulfill your execution/crossing requirements.
